

THE GATHERING

2019:

TOWARDS AN ECOLOGY OF SUPPORT

At this year's gathering, we will explore our sense of place in the world through the systems of connections that we are part of. Using story and dreams we will begin to consciously align ourselves as part of an ecological process that depends on us as much as we depend on it. Our felt sense of this will open an appreciation of the quality of our presence within that process, and what will care for and sustain us.

The day will be led by Miriam Taylor and hosted by Sally Denham-Vaughan. We will draw on theory to guide us in explorations through which we will attend to ourselves within our wider field of influence.

Whether you are a therapist, counsellor, coach, organisational consultant, or simply interested in the work of Relational Change, we believe you will discover something useful in this day of exploration and discussion. This is an opportunity for us to gather as a community, share updates on our work and strengthen relationships. We look forward to welcoming you.

Miriam Taylor, MSc, UKCP registered psychotherapist, Relational Change affiliate and member of the leadership team

Miriam is a gestalt psychotherapist, supervisor and trainer, and has been in private practice since 1995. Her background was in adult education before training as a counsellor and psychotherapist. Miriam's particular interest is in the integration of trauma and the role of the body from a relational field perspective. She teaches in the UK and internationally, and has been a trainer, academic consultant and examiner for Metanoia Institute, London. Publications include 'Trauma Therapy and Clinical Practice: Neuroscience, Gestalt and the Body', and several peer reviewed and invited articles.

Sally Denham-Vaughan, DPsych, UKCP registered psychotherapist, EAGT Gestalt Practitioner in Organisations, co-founder and director of Relational Change

Sally is an organisational consultant, accredited coach and coach supervisor, trainer, psychotherapist and supervisor. With a background in clinical psychology and gestalt psychotherapy, she has over 25 years' experience in senior leadership positions in the NHS. She is an academic advisor on the doctoral programme at Metanoia Institute/Middlesex University, Chair of the EAGT-GPO Committee, a faculty associate at the Pacific Gestalt Institute in California, and an associate with the Taos Institute. Sally's work is grounded in a passion for ecology and co-emergence.

At Relational Change we are passionate about helping individuals, teams, groups, organisations and communities to develop in ways that support and sustain better outcomes and healthier futures.
