

RELATIONAL CHANGE: ROG COMMUNITY OF PRACTISE

HOST: MAGGIE MARRIOTT

Sharing the joys and challenges of organisational work

Working in organisations whether as a coach, consultant or change agent can be a joyous and energising experience and at the same time often a lonely and tiring one. I'd like to create a time and space to invite those of you who work using Relational Organisational Gestalt (ROG) to join me for a day to share our joys and challenges.

Is this for you?

If your organisational practice includes relational gestalt and you have attended a Relational Organisational Gestalt training course or residential, then this day is for you.

What is the format?

This will be an unconference style event where the content and approach will emerge throughout the day to meet our needs and follow our energy. We may be talking about our work, or the latest book we've read or an interesting theory we like. Depending on the topic and level of interest the sessions could range from 20 minutes to a few hours.

This will be our time to share, learn, and laugh and to give and receive support.

How many places are available?

There are 7 spaces available.

What does the cost cover?

The cost covers venue hire, tea/coffee & biscuits, hot 2-course vegetarian lunch and a £2.50 admin fee. There is a large free car park at the venue.

Location

The Green Room at The Organic Farm Shop, Abbey Home Farm
Burford Road, Cirencester, GL7 5HF
