

THE GATHERING ONLINE EVENT

Contact and Community: An Ongoing Dance

Facilitated by the Relational Change Leadership Team:

Kate Glenholmes; Lynda Osborne; Marie-Anne Chidiac and Miriam Taylor.

We believe that genuine connection and strong relationships are the cornerstones of a vibrant and fulfilling life. However, maintaining these connections can be challenging, both personally and professionally. In many communities, relationships and contact were once a natural part of daily life, but this is increasingly rare in our modern world.

How can we prioritize meaningful contact and foster a sense of community amidst today's uncertainties and overwhelming demands? We invite you to explore this with us during our upcoming online Gathering day.

This low-cost event will provide valuable insights into the significance of connection and community. You'll discover practical strategies to enhance your relationships and build more support strategies for yourself.

Don't miss this opportunity to learn, share, and grow with others who are committed to making contact and community a priority.

Whether you are a therapist, counsellor, organisational consultant, coach or simply interested in the work of Relational Change, we believe you will discover something useful in this day of exploration and discussion. We look forward to welcoming you.
